

PERSONAL GEAR LIST

PERSONAL ITEMS TO BRING WITH YOU TO A WILDLAND FIRE DISPATCH

45 lb. MAXIMUM Personal Gear Weight. All items except your food and drink need to be able to fit INSIDE your GFP issued Personal Gear bag. NO EXCEPTIONS.

MANDATORY ITEMS:

- Government Issued Identification (required for every dispatch)
- Two Lunches. Meals will be provided after first shift.
- Tent - maximum 2-person, with rainfly that reaches the ground
- Sleeping Bag 30-40 Degree
- Leather Boots per Wildland Fire specs, minimum 8 in. tall uppers, Vibram sole. No combat boots, no steel or composite toes. Bring extra laces. Boot grease or oil to treat leather
- Containers for drinking water. Minimum of two Nalgene type canteens, 32oz. Recommended: four 32 oz Nalgene type canteens and one 100oz WIDE CamelBak style hydration bladder.
- Prescription/Allergy medications to last up to 30 days. Epinephrine pen REQUIRED for known bee allergies.
- 14 pair of work socks. Recommended: 14 pair moisture wicking style crew socks, 7 pair Marino Wool style socks. (Cotton not recommended for socks.)
- Undergarments for 14 days. (Cotton recommended.)
- 7 to 14 t-shirts to wear under your Nomex shirt. (Cotton recommended, workplace appropriate.)
- Toiletry items (Shampoo, soap, toothbrush, toothpaste, etc.) and toiletry bag
- Shower towel and flip flops (shower shoes)

Other misc. items to consider:

- Leather or Bison style belt
- Leatherman/Gerber style pocket knife/multi-tool
- Hoodie, stocking cap, warm gloves. (GFP hoodies and stocking caps are sold at cost, can be taken out of first check.)
- Lightweight rain shell/poncho
- 1 set of long-johns/thermal underwear
- Toilet paper, mosquito repellent, small personal first-aid kit
- Chap-stick, lip balm, Sunscreen
- Moleskin, foot powder
- 1 box of wet wipes (Showers are not guaranteed)
- One set of comfortable clothes such as sweat pants or shorts for off-shift/after shower/ R&R. (workplace appropriate)
- Sunglasses (should be safety rated and marked ANSI Z.87)
- Therm-a-rest style sleeping pad. Air mattresses are NOT recommended.
- Reading material (workplace appropriate)
- Cell phone with charger
- A few bandanas
- Personal headlamp or small flashlight. (Your issued headlamp is not for personal use)
- Cash or debit card for incidentals. (No draws at dispatch)

GFP IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR LOST/DAMAGED/STOLEN ITEMS